Lattice Wins Contracts For Call Management Services in Oregon and Washington

Pennsauken, N.J. – November 17, 2010 -- Lattice Incorporated (OTC Bulletin Board: LTTC), a provider of advanced technological solutions to key government agencies and enterprise customers, announced today that it has won contracts for new call management services in correctional facilities in Oregon and Washington State.

The contracts were awarded by Grant County in Oregon for a 40-bed correctional facility and by Gray's Harbor County in Washington State for a 176-bed correctional facility.

CEO Paul Burgess said, "We are pleased that the value of our call management services for these two facilities has been recognized and we have an opportunity to provide them with service. We are anticipating ongoing expansion of our communications group business model to a services-based model that will provide a consistent recurring revenue stream. With these two new facilities, we now have 6,350 inmates utilizing our service in the U.S. generating approximately $2,300,000 in annualized revenue. We expect to announce additional sites shortly."
