

Lattice Completes New ICON Installation in Texas

PENNSAUKEN, NJ, August 19, 2013 (Marketwire) -- Lattice Incorporated (OTCQB: LTTC) ("Lattice" or the "Company"), a provider of advanced information and communications technology solutions to customers globally, has completed the installation of its Integrated Corrections Operating Network ("ICON") platform for the police department of Carrollton, Texas.

ICON is a robust proprietary technology platform that provides secure, cloud-based management of all customer, payment, and accounting data for correctional facilities. ICON is designed to improve efficiency and accountability for correctional facilities ranging from large multi-facility operators to small individual facilities.

"We are pleased to complete this latest installation of our ICON platform," stated Mr. Paul Burgess, Chief Executive Officer of Lattice. "The cloud-based architecture of ICON positions it as an ideal solution for all sizes of corrections operations and allows us to customize each installation to maximize the value for our customers. With industry-wide applicability, we believe we'll see ongoing increases in demand for the platform, driving top-line and bottom-line improvements that increase shareholder value."
