

LATTICE NOW CERTIFIED TO PROVIDE PHONE SERVICE IN ALABAMA

Expanded geographical footprint will create new revenue opportunities

PENNSAUKEN, NJ, February 23, 2015 (Marketwired) -- Lattice Incorporated (OTCQB: LTTTC) has been certified by the Alabama Public Service Commission to provide its inmate phone service throughout Alabama. Lattice is now able to add its communications solutions to its existing inmate management offering for corrections facilities throughout the state. Communications certification enhances the Lattice solution and gives Lattice the opportunity to continue increasing its installed base.

“Expanding our sales territory for inmate phone service significantly increases important opportunities for revenue growth,” according to Paul Burgess, CEO of Lattice. “We currently have a strong base of video visitation installations in Alabama. We now look forward to partnering with Alabama facilities on our phone solutions. Our strategy is to deliver efficiencies, reduce administrative costs, and provide facilities with recurring revenue opportunities, while connecting inmates seamlessly with family and friends.”

Lattice will be exhibiting at the Alabama Sheriffs’ Association Winter Conference on March 1 - 4, 2015 at Hyatt Regency Birmingham - The Wynfrey Hotel, Birmingham, Alabama.

About Lattice Incorporated

Lattice is a provider of inmate management and communications solutions that improve efficiency, reduce administrative burden, and deliver recurring revenue opportunities for corrections facilities globally. Lattice’s Integrated Corrections Operating Network (ICON) is a platform of innovative, highly secure solutions including phone systems, prepaid calling options, voicemail, on-site and remote video visitation and arraignment, point-of-sale kiosks, e-mail, text messaging, and social media.
