

LATTICE COMPLETES VIDEO VISITATION INSTALLATION AT COLES COUNTY JAIL

Company is now Coles' primary communications provider, maximizing revenue opportunities

PENNSAUKEN, NJ, March 9, 2015 (Marketwired) -- Lattice Incorporated (OTCQB: LTTC) recently completed an installation of its NetVisit Video Visitation platform at the Coles County Jail in Charleston, Illinois. Prior to the installation, Lattice was the Inmate Phone Service provider to the Coles County facility. This new Video Visitation installation solidifies Lattice as the primary inmate communications provider to the facility and maximizes revenue opportunities for Lattice and the facility.

"We look forward to expanding our partnership with the Coles County Jail by now providing them with our complete range of inmate management and communications solutions," noted Paul Burgess, CEO of Lattice. "This additional installation maximizes our revenue potential, generates efficiencies, reduces administrative costs, and provides the facility with recurring revenue opportunities. Furthermore, our Video Visitation solution provides greater access for family and friends to connect with inmates."

About Lattice Incorporated

Lattice is a provider of inmate management and communications solutions that improve efficiency, reduce administrative burden, and deliver recurring revenue opportunities for corrections facilities globally. Lattice's Integrated Corrections Operating Network (ICON) is a platform of innovative, highly secure solutions including phone systems, prepaid calling options, voicemail, on-site and remote video visitation and arraignment, point-of-sale kiosks, e-mail, text messaging, and social media.
