

LATTICE TO IMPLEMENT INMATE COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM AT EFFINGHAM COUNTY, GA PRISON

Installation Expands Lattice's Presence In Important Growth Market

PENNSAUKEN, NJ, June 14, 2016 (Marketwired) -- Lattice Incorporated (OTCQB: LTTTC) has entered into an agreement with Effingham County Board of Commissioners to install its Nexus Inmate Communications System at the Effingham County Prison in Springfield, Georgia.

The installation expands Lattice's presence in Georgia, an important growth market for the Company.

Effingham County switched to Lattice's Nexus System based on the Company's reputation for industry-leading service and system reliability. Additionally, Lattice's platform will generate significant efficiencies for the Effingham facility.

"Our Nexus Inmate Communications System will deliver greater efficiency benefits to the Effingham County facility and reduce the administrative burden on its staff," noted Paul Burgess, CEO of Lattice. "This is an important installation for Lattice, as Georgia represents a key state in our growth strategy. We look forward to our partnership with the Effingham County facility."
